

Organization Name Kairos – updated on April 8, 2024

Liaison(s) Lee Kulbitski, Bill Oliver, Rev. Deacon Gary Darress

Who is served Incarcerated persons.

Funds used for Program materials and food. Consumables for programs that we run.

Mission of Organization The mission of the Kairos Prison Ministry is to share the transforming love and forgiveness of Jesus Christ to

How St. Michael's Can Volunteer Participation in on-site visit teams, prayers, donations of meal tickets, and attending on-site closing ceremonies. Men's and women's teams are serving in several prisons throughout the state. St. Michael's currently has people serving at Territorial Men's Correctional Facility, Youthful Offender System in Pueblo, LaVista Correctional Facility, and Denver Women's Correctional Facility.

How St. Michael's Has Engaged: Supporting with grant funds over many years. Six parishioners from St. Michael's currently directly involved.

Current Website Text:

KAIROS & SPIRITUAL JOURNEY (PRISON MINISTRY)

The mission of the Kairos Prison Ministry is to share the transforming love and forgiveness of Jesus Christ to impact the hearts and lives of incarcerated men, women, and youth, as well as their families, to become loving and productive citizens of their communities. St. Michael's currently supports a men's, women's, and youth program (called Spiritual Journey). Through these programs, the men host afternoons in Cañon City at the prison, the women host gatherings in Denver in Pueblo, and the Youthful Offender System is in Pueblo. They also host several-day retreats that are just starting to pick back up. Deacon Gary Darress, Lee Kulbitski, and Bill Oliver are leaders in each of these sections.