

Organization Name Spiritual Journey – Christian ministry at youth prison in Pueblo

Liaison(s) Bill Oliver

Who is served The youth imprisoned at the Youthful Offender System (YOS) in Pueblo – the only youth prison operated by the Colorado Department of Corrections.

Funds used for To help fund the direct cost of the normal 4-day program weekends, which is about $4600. Hopefully, we might be able to support two such weekends as in the past, if allowed by the prison and if we have enough team volunteers.

Mission of Organization To introduce young men and women to Christian concepts such as God's unconditional forgiveness and love, hopefully leading the youth on a path of making better choices in their lives.

How St. Michael's Can Volunteer Most importantly, serving on a 4-day weekend team. Also, the opportunity for monthly reunions at the youth prison in Pueblo.

How St. Michael's has Engaged in the past Supporting with grant funds over many years. 2 people directly involved.
